

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 10, 1897.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WATER PROBABILITIES.—For this season fair to light and Wednesday, cooler, with light breeze, shifting to northwesterly, with light breeze.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. Jolly Jones, of the Holmes, Ia., and Mr. Morgan Sherwood, of Washington, are spending a week fishing and gunning at Four-mile run. They are occupying the Owl Club House.

Mrs. George W. Mays has returned from a pleasant visit at Rose Mills. Misses Eva L. Nettles and Mabel B. Nettles, of Tex., are visiting Mrs. W. F. Crenshaw, 1717 South Pitt street.

Mr. R. B. Tucker, has secured a position in the auditing department of the Southern Railway, in Washington. Mr. Tucker will make his home in this city with his brother, Rev. J. E. Thacker.

Mr. Mark E. Miller of this city, who has been employed for some months in New York City, is now extremely ill at Newport News, Va. His mother has been brought here this morning on the Norfolk steamer.

Mr. Walter G. Rogers is spending a week at Atlantic City.

A vacation party to River View was given yesterday evening to Miss Lucy Williams, of Franklin, Va., and a most delightful time was enjoyed by all. Miss Williams is the guest of Miss Lillian Crump, on South Pitt street, and has made many friends since her stay in this city.

Mr. Alexander Murray, formerly of this city, but now of Memphis, is here on a short visit to his many friends.

Mr. M. B. Harlow, who is now at Asbury Park, is rapidly regaining his health.

DO NOT LIKE HOME.—A letter from this city to the Richmond Times says: I saw Colonel Delaware Kemper on the streets on Saturday, and he tells me he has come home to stay. He has just returned from way over in China, where he was United States consul at Amoy. The Colonel looks well, has done well, but says there's no place like home. He says lots of others keep coming up to Alexandria and saying: "No place like home—no home like Alexandria—where is there not an Alexandrian or something to remind one of the old town—no where—absolutely no where. Two Alexandrians just back from the Christian Endeavor excursion to San Francisco say they met a dozen Alexandrians while away. Two that are doing well say they propose to return to the old town. One family say that Los Angeles does not suit them. They prefer Seminary Hill. It will be noted Alexandrians do get out of town. Capt. P. H. Ray, whom the government has just ordered to the Klondike gold regions to take charge of the government's interests there, married an Alexandria lady and calls Alexandria his home. Once when down on the island of Cuba, a captain of a British ship told me that he did find it worse there than the GAZETTE and gave him a dozen more. He says he got it in Australia from whence he came. How the GAZETTE got down there is a mystery.

RIVER VIEW TOURNAMENT.—The tenth annual tournament and dress ball of the managers of the River View excursion resort will take place to-morrow and will be attended by a throng of people from the neighboring counties of Maryland and Virginia. Some 25 knights have entered the lists and among them are some of the best of the riders in this section. Mr. Frank E. Anderson, of this city, will be the orator of the occasion, and among the judges are Lieut. John B. Hull and Sheriff Billy Palmer, of Alexandria. In the afternoon after the tournament is over, Grace Shannon will make the last of her startling balloon ascension and parachute drops at the View. The coronation ball at night will be a grand affair and dancing will continue until daybreak Thursday. The tent will leave Reed's wharf at 10:20 a. m., 2:20 and 7:05 p. m.

OFF FOR ROANOKE.—The Alexandria city and county delegates to the State convention at Roanoke left here this morning at 8:20 on the regular train on the Southern Railway. The city and county will be fully represented, as the delegates who were unable to attend all appointed alternates, and the demand for proxies was greater than the supply. Attached to the train was a special car chartered by Mr. J. E. Willard for the use of the Fairfax delegates and a number of other friends. The Loudoun delegates were also on the train. The Alexandria city and county delegates and many others were Catonsville and will make a strong effort to secure the nomination of Mr. James R. Catton for Lieutenant Governor.

CORNER STONE LAYING.—The corner stone which was to have been laid at the Third Baptist Church, at the corner of Princess and Patrick streets, Sunday, was laid yesterday by two young colored men—J. T. Holmes and N. E. Harris—who were initiated into Lincoln Lodge of that order last Friday night. The stone was laid without ceremony. Holmes is a bricklayer and Harris a carpenter. The gathering was very small, as the weather was very hot, as was also the collection. The collection Sunday amounted to $7.00.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor G. L. Simpson presiding.—The following cases have been disposed of since yesterday: Jamie Johnson, colored, arrested by Officer Hall for disorderly conduct and assaulting Maggie Grannan, was dismissed with a reprimand.

A young man, charged with disorderly conduct in a north Lee street house, was fined $2.

Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and cool. One prisoner was at the station house.

OFF FOR CHAPEL POINT.—The members of the Third Regiment Drum Corps, dressed in their full uniform and carrying knapsacks, &c., paraded the streets this morning and subsequently left on the steamer River View for Chapel Point, where, as stated yesterday, they will go into camp for ten days. They have made all arrangements and will doubtless have a good time.

A horse attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. Thomas Hoy while standing opposite to the Thomas store on St. Asaph street this morning fell over on the sidewalk and in its descent struck Mr. Edward Forsahl, who was standing close by, down with it. Forsahl escaped injury. The horse is supposed to have had a fit.

Several Alexandrians will attend the meeting of the Potomac Association of Baptist ministers at Haymarket to-morrow.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Potomac fisheries are now making but scant returns to the fishermen. Mr. R. Lee Field announces in his advertisement a discount of fifteen per cent. on his stock. All his straw hats have been marked down to less than half the amount they were bringing a week or two ago. Purchasers will consult their interests by calling on him.

A meeting is being held to-day at Chantilly, Fairfax county, of District Lodge No. 13 of Good Templars, embracing the lodges of Fairfax, Alexandria and Prince William counties and the city of Alexandria.

A special meeting of the City Council will probably be held one night this week to consider a proposition for the laying of a sewer down Cameron street and also in reference to some street work.

The new front of Washington Hall building, on King street, east of Washington, has been completed, and the shed over the sidewalk will now be taken down.

Beer from the Consumers' Distillery at Rosslyn is on draught at the Concordia and other saloons to-day, and was pronounced to be fine by all who drank it.

A party consisting of fifteen or twenty ladies and gentlemen from the Washington neighborhood left here to-day for a short stay at Colonial Beach.

No business was transacted last night at the meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry, and the company was dismissed after 10 o'clock.

Rev. E. F. Rattay, an eminent Baptist minister of California, will speak at the gospel tent this evening at 8 o'clock.

Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, will meet to-night.

THE CONVENTION.

Roanoke is alive with people to-day, and there is a feeling of suppressed excitement in all parts of the city. The long expected and much-talked-of State democratic convention is not twenty-four hours off, and already candidates and delegates are gathering upon the ground preparatory for the preliminary work, which is to decide upon whom the choice of the convention will fall. The candidates for temporary chairman are Judge William F. Rhea, of Bristol, and Mr. Greenlee D. Letcher, of Lexington. Mr. Joseph Burton, clerk of the Senate, will be the temporary secretary. Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, in his capacity as chairman of the democratic State central committee, will call the convention to order.

From present indications there will be no fight over the endorsement of the Chicago platform. There likely will be no open opposition to it. Quite likely an effort will be made to have the convention put itself on record as favorable to the renomination of Mr. Bryan for the presidency. There will be no contention in the committee on resolutions with reference to proper expressions as to State issues. Senator Daniel or Congressman Oley, most likely the former, will be chairman of the committee on resolutions.

After the receipt of the reports of the committees will be received, beginning with that of the committee on permanent organization. Mr. E. W. Saunders, member of the House of Delegates from Franklin county, will not doubt be elected permanent chairman. Col. John Bell Bigger, clerk of the House of Delegates, who, with the exception, perhaps, of Mr. Marshall Haner, is the best parliamentarian in the State, will most likely be the permanent secretary, with Mr. Joseph Burton, clerk of the State Senate, as assistant.

The nominations for governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general will be proceeded with as soon as the convention is permanently organized. The following are the candidates whose names will go before the convention, so far as is known at this time: For Governor—Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, Mr. Maj. Baker P. Lee, Maj. J. Hoge Tyler.

For Lieutenant Governor—Col. A. S. Buford, Mr. Merritt T. Cooke, State Senator Edward Echols, Mr. J. E. Catton, of this city.

For Attorney General—Major F. R. Lassiter, of Petersburg; Mr. A. J. Montague, of Danville; Judge William H. Mann, of Nottoway; Mr. Lloyd T. Smith, Northumberland; Mr. William R. Alexander, of Winchester; Henry R. Pollard, of Richmond and R. Carter Scott, of Warrenton. The body will also elect a chairman of the State committee. The candidates for the latter position are Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, Congressman Peter J. Otey, of the third district, and United States Senator Thomas S. Martin and Mr. J. E. Miller. Much interest was created yesterday by the statement that R. Carter Scott, who was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of his deceased father, Major R. Taylor Scott, as attorney general, will be an active candidate before the convention. The fight over this office will be very bitter, and will probably prolong the convention.

BASEBALL.—The National League baseball games played yesterday resulted as follows: Brooklyn 9, Baltimore 9; New York 10, Boston 4; Pittsburgh 7, Cincinnati 5; Louisville 2, Washington 5; Philadelphia 2, the following is the standing of the clubs:

| | Won. | Lost. | Per Cent. |
|--------------|------|-------|-----------|
| Boston | 60 | 28 | .682 |
| Cincinnati | 56 | 30 | .651 |

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—A continuation of yesterday's late selling movement developed in the initial trading in the Stock Exchange to-day, under which prices of the more active railways received moderate fractions. The bulls soon rallied and on heavy purchases values of the leading railway shares appreciated fractionally above yesterday's close. Near 11 o'clock the market developed a heavy tone again.
